Notice is hereby given that I, the said Tax Collector, will apply to the District Court held in and for the said County of Cochise, at the next regular term thereof, namely the May, 1888, term of said court, and on the first day of said term, to wit: May 14, 1888, or as soonthere after as counsel can be heard, for judgment against the lands, real estate and personal property described in the foregoing list, for said taxes, costs and interest, and for an order to sell the same for the satisfaction thereof; and notice is also herebygiven that on the Monday next succeeding the said day fixed by law for the commencement of such term of said court, the land and real estate and personal property, for the sale of which an order shall be made, will be exposed to public sale at the Cochise County Court House, that being the place where said District Court is held, for the amount of taxes interest and costs due thereon.

Witness my hand this January 18th, A. D.
1888.

J. V. VICKERS,
Acting County Treasurer and Ex-officio Tax Collector, in and for Cochise County, Arizona Territory.

Don Carlos Velasco returned from Sonora yesterday, after a week's visit to the land of the manyana. Magdalena, he says, is uncommonly dull. Its proximity to the Zona Libra has practically ruined its mercantile trade. People in need of clothing living the country south of the zone, buy nothing at home, but at No-gales, where their wants can be supplied at about one-fourth the price. Within the limits of the zone no import duties are charged, and as no people in the world can beat a Mexican at outwitting the custom house officers, they generally evade the payment of duties in getting them outside. As a consequent result the little towns contiguous to the zone that formerly did considerable business, new practically do none.—Citizen.
